Sergeant Strawser Is Killed In France

Sgt. Ohmer Strawser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Strawser, who reside east of Castine on R. R. 1, West Manchester, was killed in action in France on June 26, according to word received last week by his wife, a Dayton resident. Sgt. Strawser was inducted into the army in July, 1942, and had been overseas since February 1, 1944. He attended Arcanum high school, and before his induction was employed at the Di-Mold corporation, Dayton.

Surviving, besides his wife and parents, are one brother, Jesse of Arcanum, and two sisters, Mrs. Glen Rife, residing with her parents, and Mrs. Ralph Good of New Madison.
