This dental chart is very important and should be filled in with great care. There are 32 teeth to be accounted for, as shown by the numbers on the chart. Beginning at the middle line in both upper and lower jaws, the teeth are arranged symmetrically on either side and classed as incisors (cutting teeth), cuspids or canines (tearing teeth), bicuspids (chewing teeth), and molars (principal chewing teeth). An examination should be made and findings charted to cover the following basic conditions: Lost teeth, crowned teeth, bridge work, fillings, caries (cavities of decay), dentures (plates), and any deformity of jaws found. See reverse side for illustrations.

Dear Mrs. Hannon:

This is to inform you that the remains of your loved one have been permanently interred, as recorded above, side by side with comrades who also gave their lives for their country. Customary military funeral services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

After the Department of the Army has completed all final interments, the cemetery will be transferred, as authorized by the Congress, to the care and supervision of the American Battle Monuments Commission. The Commission also will have the responsibility for permanent construction and beautification of the cemetery, including erection of the permanent headstone. The headstone will be inscribed with the name exactly as recorded above, the rank or rating where appropriate, organization, State, and date of death. Any inquiries relative to the type of headstone or the spelling of the name to be inscribed thereon, should be addressed to the American Battle Monuments Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Your letter should include the full name, rank, serial number, grave location, and name of the cemetery.

While interments are in progress, the cemetery will not be open to visitors. You may rest assured that this final interment was conducted with fitting dignity and solemnity and that the grave-site will be carefully and conscientiously maintained in perpetuity by the United States Government.

Sincerely yours,

CARL A. SCULL
DEPUTY CITY TREASURER

September 6, 1949.

Lt. Colonel W.E. Campbell,
QMC, Memorial Division,
Department of the Army,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Colonel Campbell:

Several days ago I dictated a letter to you at the request of my wife, Mrs. Dorothy Hannon Coleman, 1417 Academy St., Scranton, Pennsylvania, regarding the disposition of the remains of her brother, the late Private First Class John J. Hannon, who was killed in action on September 30, 1944, in Groesbeek, Holland.

It was my intention to take the letter home to have my wife sign it, and forward it to you but, inadvertently, I placed the letter in an envelope addressed to the War Department and dropped them into the mail box with a number of other letters. It was several hours before I discovered my error, too late to stop delivery to Washington.

In the meantime, a Mrs. Williams from the War Department telephoned and, fortunately, my wife answered the phone and advised her of the desire of herself and her brother, Joseph, that the remains of the late Private First Class John J. Hannon be permanently buried in a military cemetery overseas. She suggested that the doctor's certificate be sent, attesting to the delicate state of her mother's health and the risk involved of notifying her of your communications.

If you will forward the envelope with its full contents, addressed either to me at City Hall, Scranton, Pennsylvania, or, to my wife at 1417 Academy Street, Scranton, Pa., she will sign the letter and fill out the form necessary for your records.

I am sorry to subject you to this inconvenience but you have my sincerest appreciation for your cooperation in the matter.

Yours very truly,

EJC:AM

EDWARD J. COLEMAN, City Treasurer.

Dear Lt. Colonel Campbell:

Reference is made to your letter of August 19th addressed to Mrs. Anna R. Hannon, 1124 Rockwell Avenue, Scranton, Pennsylvania, regarding the disposition of the remains of my brother, the late Private First Class John J. Hannon, killed in action on September 30, 1944, in Groesbeek, Holland.

My mother is not aware of the contents or the receipt of your letter. Upon the advice of her attending physician, it was decided not to reveal the information contained in your letter, because in her present delicate state of health she could not withstand such an ordeal.

I have discussed the matter with my brother, Joseph, and it is our considered judgment that arrangements ought to be made for his permanent burial in a military cemetery overseas.

The shocking news of his death exacted its toll from my mother's health, and we are fearful the heart-rending information contained in your letter might prove fatal.

It is our desire that no further communication be addressed to my mother in connection with his burial place.

Be assured of my sincere appreciation for your compliance with our request and for your cooperation in the matter of any further communications addressed to my mother.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Hannon:

We are desirous that you be furnished information concerning the resting place of the remains of your son, the late Private First Class John J. Hannon.

The official report of burial has been received and discloses that the remains of your son were originally buried in an isolated grave located at Groesbeek, Holland, but were later disinterred by our American Graves Registration Personnel, properly identified, and reinterred in Plot SS, Row 8, Grave 194, in the United States Military Cemetery Margraten, Holland, located ten miles west of Aachen, Germany.

The report further indicates that these remains have now been casketed and are being held at that cemetery pending disposition instructions from the next of kin, either for return to the United States or for permanent burial in an overseas cemetery.

There are inclosed informational pamphlets regarding the Return of World War II Dead Program, including a Disposition Form on which you may indicate your desires in this matter. Upon receipt of the properly completed form, you may be assured that the Department of the Army will attempt to comply with your instructions as indicated thereon.

In order that this office may take immediate action toward the final disposition of the remains of your son, it is urged that you complete the inclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail it to this office, without delay, in the inclosed self-addressed envelope which requires no postage.

May I extend my sincere sympathy in your great loss.

REMARKS
The remains of Unknown X-1929 were recovered from Groesbeek, Holland, estimated date of death September 1944. Sketch of isolated grave shows the remains were buried in Woods near Mook, Holland.

Army records reveal that Pfc. John J. Hannon, 12139651, KIA 30 September 1944, was a member of 401st Glider Infantry Regiment, 101st Airborne Division, who failed to return from a mission while engaged in combat with the enemy in vicinity of Kiekberg Forest, Holland.

Story of 101st Airborne Division indicates that during the last days of September 1944, paratroopers and glidermen fought the enemy heavily, on a strip of land between Nederrijn and Waal Rivers with Arnhem to the north and Nijmegen to the south.

Clothing found with remains are in agreement with Branch of Service for Pfc. Hannon.

Comparison of tooth chart for Unknown X-1929 is favorable with Army dental records for subject deceased.

Height, weight and color of hair for Unknown X-1929 are very favorable with height, weight and color of hair for Pfc. Hannon.

Paratrooper boot size for Unknown X-1929 is identical to shoe size for Pfc. Hannon.

There are eight other Unknowns, on file, with place of death indicated as Groesbeek, Holland, which can be eliminated by dental and physical comparison.

THE STORY OF THE 101st AIRBORNE DIVISION

 Sept. 24, a fresh German thrust cut the supply line between Vechel and St. Odenrode. Eagle soldiers combined with British tanks to smash German defenses and again reopen the road. Thereafter the thunderous roar of armor and supply trucks rolling up the highway continued uninterrupted.

Meanwhile, Gen. Taylor shuttled troops up and down both sides of the British Second Army's supply route to repulse German forces determined to sever Gen. Dempsey's lifeline.

Airborne troops, glidermen and paratroopers plugged gaps in the line with courage and M-1 rifles.

During the campaign in the canal-divided lowlands, hard-hitting Eagle paratroopers and glidermen again met a reorganized Normandy foe, the German 6th Parachute Regt. This crack German unit fared no better than before, sustaining heavy casualties which forced its early removal from the 101st sector.

Following this behind-the-enemy-lines "Airborne phase," the 101st moved to an area which soon became known to troops as the "Island." This strip of land was located between the Nederijn and Wall Rivers with Arnhem to the north, Nijmegen to the south.

Arrival of the Screaming Eagle on the Island marked the beginning of the end for Germany's 363rd Volksgrenadier Div. Taking over a quiet sector of the Island, the 101st prepared defensive positions.

Within 24 hours Germans struck from the west, slamming their 957th Regt. hard against the Airborne wall. Told it was opposing a handful of isolated Allied parachutists, hungry and without adequate weapons, the Nazi regiment attacked, confidently and swiftly.

The assault was absorbed by the depth of the 101st defense. The enemy was stunned at the savage reception accorded him by the "handful of Allied parachutists, hungry and without adequate weapons." Doggedly, the Germans drove--into destruction. Soon, the 957th Regt. ceased to exist as a fighting tactical unit.

But the savage warfare wasn't over. Germans reorganized battered elements and the 968th Regt. arrived the next day to join its faltering fellow regiment. German artillery and armor supported a fresh attack. By nightfall, the Eagle battalion occupying Opheusden, focal point of the German effort for three days of fanatical fighting, withdrew to a defensive line east of the town.

Opheusden changed hands several times. Either attacking or withdrawing, skillful Eagle sky-fighters inflicted tremendous losses on the 363rd Div. now completely assembled with the 959th Inf. Regt. 363rd Art'y. Regt. and its engineer and fusilier battalions in the fold. Airborne soldiers eventually captured the town, blasted retreating and thoroughly beaten Germans completely out of the Airborne sector.

Order of Battle records of enemy killed, wounded and captured provide mute testimony to the destruction of the German division. In its reorganized Volkstrenadier status, the once-proud 363rd Inf. Div. lasted exactly 10 days in the claws of the Screaming Eagles.

From then on, activity in Holland was limited to patrols. *****

This dental chart is very important and should be filled in with great care. There are 32 teeth to be accounted for, as shown by the numbers on the chart. Beginning at the middle line in both upper and lower jaws, the teeth are arranged symmetrically on either side and classed as incisors (cutting teeth), cuspids or canines (tearing teeth), bicuspid (chewing teeth), and molars (principal chewing teeth). An examination should be made and findings charted to cover the following basic conditions: Lost teeth, crowned teeth, bridge work, fillings, caries (cavities of decay), dentures (plates), and any deformity of jaws found. See reverse side for illustrations.

Scranton, Pennsylvania

Dear Mrs. Hannon:

The Army Effects Bureau is forwarding to you the following personal property, recently received here, belonging to your son, Private First Class John J. Hannon:

1 Carton and contents

My action in transmitting the property does not, of itself, vest title in you. The items are forwarded in order that you may act as gratuitous bailee in caring for them pending the return of the owner, who has been reported missing in action. In the event he later is reported a casualty, and I sincerely hope he never is, it will be necessary that the property be turned over to the person or persons legally entitled to receive it.

When delivery has been made, I shall appreciate your acknowledging receipt by signing one copy of this letter in the space provided below, and returning it to this Bureau. For your convenience, there is inclosed an addressed envelope which needs no postage.

I regret the circumstances prompting this letter, and wish to express my hope for the safe return of your son.

Yours very truly,

P. L. KOOB
