NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Dear Mom,

June 4 - 44

Here it is Sunday, just finished evening chore, and have nothing to do so will write you a few lines. It's been rather cool here today, but since it's Sunday I spent a good part of the day sleeping.

Just to think a year ago today I was in Los Angeles, California, visiting B.V. Mahoney. A year's time sure changes things. Maybe next year this time I'll be in L.A., enjoying a vacation on my new motorcycle, who knows? Yes, I aim to buy me a motorcycle when I get back to U. S. A. once more.

How are things back there on the farm, coming along? Is Carl going to get in any of the hay this year? Let me know if this letter comes through clear, it's written in pencil. That's all for now. Bye. Aunt

Source: This information was obtained from the Hospital Admission Card data files (1942-1945; 1950-1954), created by the Office of the Surgeon General, Department of the Army. During 1988, this secondary source material was made available to the National Personnel Records Center by the National Research Council, a current custodian of the data file. The file was originally compiled for statistical purposes; therefore, name identification does not exist and sampling techniques were used with the result that not all hospital admissions are included. Veterans on the file are identified by service number and other data related to hospital admission.

Dear Lieutenant -

Due to regulations there isn't a great deal I can write about your brother, Cpl. Siddall who is reported missing in action - You understand such things of course -

He has not been heard of since he left the place but we feel very confident that he is a prisoner of war. I can't give you any reasons but everything points to that.

We have received no official notification but when we do you will be notified - Although your brother had been with us a comparatively short time, his loss is keenly felt. He was a good soldier, quick to learn, and one you could count on -

All of us here are anxiously hoping that our belief is correct and he will turn up as a prisoner - If there is anything more you would like to know, just write - Good luck -

Sincerely yours -

Sir H. P. P. P.
Capt. C.E.

Corp. Siddall Of Moravia Is Missing

Mother Gets Message ~~That Paratrooper Saw~~ Action in France

Moravia, June 29.—Mrs. Ernest Siddall of R.D. 3 received a telegram from the War Department Wednesday that her son, Corp. E. Quentin Siddall is missing in action in France. Corp. Siddall was attached to a para-troop unit of the Army engineers. He is the youngest of her four sons in the service.

Corp. Siddall enlisted in 1941 and was inducted into the service July 1, his 18th birthday, when he had completed his junior year at Moravia High School, where he was entered as an agricultural student. He was active in baseball and considered a crack shot as member of the rifle team. He reported for basic training at Portland, Ore., and from there was transferred to Camp McCall, N.C. from here he entrained for overseas duty in February of this year.

Mrs. Siddall today expressed every hope of her son's safety. "The telegram was a terrible shock," she said, "but I somehow feel confident that Quentin is safe and I feel calmer now."

Three other sons are in the service, all enlisting in 1942: Pfc. Alan N. Siddall, who is training in gunnery at Laredo, Tex.; Iva Siddall, warrant officer at a field inspection office of air service, at Indianapolis, Ind., and Lt. Ewa Siddall, a navigator of the Air Force stationed in England. A fifth son, Carl, is at home working the farm alone.

Dear Mrs. Siddall:

It is with profound regret that I confirm the recent telegram informing you of the death of your son, Corporal Elmer Q. Siddall, 12,025,255, Corps of Engineers, who was previously reported missing in action on 6 June 1944 in France.

An official message has now been received which states that he was killed in action on the date he was previously reported missing in action. If additional information is received it will be transmitted to you promptly.

I realize the burden of anxiety that has been yours since he was first reported missing in action and deeply regret the sorrow this later report brings you. May the knowledge that he made the supreme sacrifice for his home and country be a source of sustaining comfort.

My sympathy is with you in this time of great sorrow.

Sincerely yours,

J. A. ULLO
Major General,
The Adjutant General.

Corp. Siddall's Death Attested

Information has now been received by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Siddall from Headquarters, 307th Airborne Engineer Battallion, revealing the circumstances leading to the death of their son, E. Quentin Siddell on D-Day, 1944, who for five months carried a missing status and was later reported killed.

The letter reveals that Corporal Siddall volunteered to partake in an especially hazardous operation, and that investigation shows that his plane load of paratroops jumped on St. Mere Eglise, France, the first village on the continent to be liberated on June 6, 1944, and that all the men of his plane were killed due to enemy action.

The letter further states that the remains of Corporal Siddall were interred in a U. S. Military cemetery at Blosville, France on July 1st, 1944, the last rites being administered by a Protestant Chaplain. Ironically enough, July 1st is the date of his birth, and also the date on which he first enlisted in the U. S. Army in 1941, at the age of eighteen.

The Purple Heart was Posthumously awarded to Corporal Siddall, and it has been received by his parents.
