Dear Mrs. Eyerly:

Thank you for the information furnished the Army Effects Bureau in connection with the personal effects of your husband, First Lieutenant Jack B. Eyerly.

There is inclosed an Insignia, a Red Cross Card, and a receipt received here with your husband's effects, showing that on April 10, 1944 he deposited $202.00 with the Finance Department, APO number 514, for transmittal to you. I am inclosing a check for $6.41, representing funds which belonged to him. The remainder of the property is being forwarded to you in three containers.

If, by any chance, the property has not reached you at the expiration of thirty days from this date, please notify me and tracer will be instituted.

The action of this Bureau in transmitting personal effects does not, of itself, vest title in the recipient. Such property is forwarded for distribution according to the laws of the state of the officer's legal residence.

I wish to express my sympathy in the loss of your husband.

SHIPMENT CLERK

Dear Lt. Niemiec,

In reply to your 11 September 1945 letter (140586), concerning a war bond which belonged to my late husband, 1st Lt. Jack B. Eyerly and in the name of a Mrs. Leonard, I do not have any further address of this woman.

However, at the present, I am trying to locate her, and will let you know, should I be able to find her.

It would be appreciated though, if you could give me a few further details.

I'd like to know:-

1. Is there just one war bond and if so, what denomination?
2. If it was a single war bond, why was it made out "Mrs. Dona Lee Leonard," and "Mrs. Dona M. Leonard," both?
3. Was it made out co-owner with Lt. Eyerly, or Payable on Death?
4. Could there be a chance that this bond belonged to some other Lt. Eyerly? About seven years ago, the family met another Jack Eyerly.
5. I may be able to locate Mrs. Leonard through my friends, but if I should find her, and you can't find her either, then what happens to the Bond?
6. Could you please tell me where the Bond was issued and what date is on it?

It may seem strange to you, for me to want to know the answers to these questions, but they really have the utmost importance in this case, not only in helping me locate Mrs. Leonard, but for other more personal reasons.

I'm am as anxious as you, to settle this matter, and would appreciate your help. Thank you for being so kind.

Yours very truly,
Mrs. Norma L. Eyerly

Dear Mr. Eyerly:

Reference is made to your communication of recent date, relative to the location of the burial place of your son, the late First Lieutenant Jack B. Eyerly.

You are advised that the official report of interment received in this office shows that the remains of your son were reverently and properly interred in the American Cemetery, Bloisville, France, Grave 31, Row 2, Plot E, with a Protestant ceremony conducted at the grave by an Army Chaplain. A temporary marker with a fitting inscription thereon has been erected and the grave properly recorded. The cemetery is under immediate supervision of our military authorities.

Please accept my sincere sympathy in the loss of your son.

For The Quartermaster General:

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mrs. Eyerly:

The people of the United States, through the Congress have authorized the disinterment and final burial of the heroic dead of World War II. The Quartermaster General of the Army has been entrusted with this sacred responsibility to the honored dead. The records of the War Department indicate that you may be the nearest relative of the above-named deceased, who gave his life in the service of his country.

The enclosed pamphlets, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," and "American Cemeteries," explain the disposition, options and services made available to you by your Government. If you are the next of kin according to the line of kinship as set forth in the enclosed pamphlet, "Disposition of World War II Armed Forces Dead," you are invited to express your wishes as to the disposition of the remains of the deceased by completing Part I of the enclosed form "Request for Disposition of Remains." Should you desire to relinquish your rights to the next in line of kinship, please complete Part II of the enclosed form. If you are not the next of kin, please complete Part III of the enclosed form.

If you should elect Option 2, it is advised that no funeral arrangements or other personal arrangements be made until you are further notified by this office.

Will you please complete the enclosed form, "Request for Disposition of Remains" and mail in the enclosed self-addressed envelope, which requires no postage, within 30 days after its receipt by you? Its prompt return will avoid unnecessary delays.

Sincerely,

THOMAS B. LARKIN

Dear Mrs. Eyerly:

This is to inform you that the remains of your loved one have been permanently interred, as recorded above, side by side with comrades who also gave their lives for their country. Customary military funeral services were conducted over the grave at the time of burial.

After the Department of the Army has completed all final interments, the cemetery will be transferred, as authorized by the Congress, to the care and supervision of the American Battle Monuments Commission. The Commission also will have the responsibility for permanent construction and beautification of the cemetery, including erection of the permanent headstone. The headstone will be inscribed with the name exactly as recorded above, the rank or rating where appropriate, organization, State, and date of death. Any inquiries relative to the type of headstone or the spelling of the name to be inscribed thereon, should be addressed to the American Battle Monuments Commission, Washington 25, D. C. Your letter should include the full name, rank, serial number, grave location, and name of the cemetery.

While interments are in progress, the cemetery will not be open to visitors. You may rest assured that this final interment was conducted with fitting dignity and solemnity and that the grave-site will be carefully and conscientiously maintained in perpetuity by the United States Government.

Sincerely yours,

H. FELDMAN
Major General
The Quartermaster General
