²⁹³ Strength as of 1 April was 156, including Korps-Kartenstelle 474.

²⁹⁴ Strength as of 1 April was 375.

²⁹⁵ The three companies assigned to the regiment were originally part of Fest.-Pi.-Btl. 9., which was disbanded on 30 May 1944.

²⁹⁶ Strength as of 1 April was 900 Heer and 200 Kriegsmarine.

²⁹⁷ Organized beginning 15 January 1944, on 1 June the division strength was reported as 9,095 and 1,410 HiWi. A Feld-Ers.-Btl. was organized in June, apparently after D-Day. The division was ordered to Normandy on 6 June and elements of the division were committed against U.S. forces in the Cotentin as early as 10 June. See Appendix IV for a partial list of fixed weapons in the division zone.
